

Aspirations

56%

of young Nigerians are likely to favour actions, policies and events which enable them to secure independence, follow their own path, explore new opportunities, and engage in decision-making for themselves.

34%

of youth think Nigeria's top priority for the next five years should be economic growth.

39%

think it should be ensuring safety and security.

40%

of young Nigerians intend to start their own business.

